

Release and Assumption of Risk

I am aware that during the tour, trip, expedition or vacation that I am participating in under the arrangements of Oregon Trail Wagon Train and their employees and associates, certain risks, dangers and hazards may occur. Including but not limited to, hazards of prairie travel in covered wagons, hazards of traveling on or near horses, hiking through unknown or difficult terrain, possibility of illness or injury far from medical facilities, hazards of nature and its forces and travel by vehicle or other conveyance.

In consideration of and as a part of payment to Oregon Trail Wagon Train for the right to participate in such tours, trips, expeditions and vacations arranged for me, I will hold Oregon Trail Wagon Train, its agents and associates harmless from any and all liability, actions, causes of action, debts, claims and demands of any kind and nature arising from or in connection with any and all activities planned or provided by Oregon Trail Wagon Train, its agents or associates.

The above terms hereof shall serve as a release and assumption of risk for my heirs, executors, administrators and other interested parties including all members of my family and any minor children accompanying me.

Warning!!!

Under Nebraska Law, an equine professional is not liable for an injury to or the death of a participant in equine activities resulting from the inherent risk of equine activities pursuant to Sections 25-21, 249 to 25-21, 253.

By signing this agreement, I swear to have read and understood these terms and conditions including the policy on cancellation and refunds.
